NEWBERRY TO QUIT IF FRIENDS SAY SO

Senator to Be Guided by the Wishes of Men Who Got Him to Run.
WILL FIGHT IF ASKED
Says He Has Been Involuntary Actor in Four Year Political Drama.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
DETROIT, Nov. 18.—Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan said today that the question of whether he will resign from the United States Senate or fight to keep his seat must be decided for him by friends and interests who persuaded him to run against Henry Ford in 1918. He will ask these friends to suggest what action he should take.

Mr. Newberry says he has no hard feeling toward those who urged him into the Senatorial race. He says he has made many friends since the election that proved a national scandal. For the last four years, he says, he has been an involuntary actor in the political drama.

"As I have said before," said the Senator, "I am not entirely a free agent in this matter. I didn't get into this thing in the first place because I wanted to. I thought I was finished with public life when I got through with the navy. I am not a politician. I don't know any thing about politics. The friends and interests who got me into it are the ones I will consult before making any further moves."

"That I did not want to get into this thing in the first place and that I was not the originator or instigator of a deep laid plot to corrupt the Michigan electorate I was not permitted to show at the trial in Grand Rapids. Anybody who reads the letters I wrote to George E. Miller before getting into the Senatorial race will realize that. I was not permitted to put these letters into evidence at Grand Rapids because, the court ruled, they were so-called 'self serving' evidence. In other words, I might have written those letters long before the campaign with the idea of constructing an alibi for a deep conspiracy."

Mr. Newberry didn't repeat what his friends had often said—that he was justified in spending the money he did to beat Henry Ford and the League of Nations—but his talk clearly indicated that he feels he had been at least a passive instrument in the hands of those who thought the issue justified the means.

"I am going to talk to them first," he said. "I will do just as they think best."

There are Republican leaders who say Senator Newberry has hurt his party in Michigan and killed Senator Townsend politically because he did not step out of office as soon as the United States Supreme Court decided in his favor. These men say his selfishness is responsible for the whole mess. Senator Newberry's friends have denied all this and say he has been working for a principle he thought was just—that he has been acting under the direction of men like Senators Lodge, New, Calder and Frelinghuysen.

His latest attitude seems to be in line with this theory. He faces what is universally believed to be certain defeat if he attempts to take his seat in the next regular session of Congress.

A statement was filed today showing that $15,441 was spent by the Townsend For Senator organization in its unsuccessful effort to reelect Senator Charles E. Townsend. Townsend's personal expenses were $965.

GROS QUITS EUROPEAN LEGION COMMAND
Says His Ideas Are Not Those Expressed at Convention.

Dr. Edmund Gros, who this week led an attack on the methods used by the American Legion during the New Orleans convention, resigned today as Commander of the Department of Central Europe. He will be succeeded by Arthur W. Kipling, former vice-commander.

In explaining his resignation to THE NEW YORK HERALD correspondent Dr. Gros said: "My ideas of the Legion are not the same as those expressed in New Orleans. That is all I have to say."

Dr. Gros insisted that he was not leaving the Legion and would continue to fight from the rank of the Paris post for cleaner and saner methods in the national body.

SAY DAUGHERTY WRIT HAD ILLEGAL INTENT
Shopmen Make Charge in Asking Suit Dismissed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—In a brief filed today in support of the defense motion to dismiss the Government's injunction suit against the Federated Railroad Shop Crafts it was charged that there was better evidence of an unlawful purpose on the part of the United States Attorney-General than on the part of the labor union officials in connection with the shopmen's strike.

The brief further asserted there was no unlawful conspiracy on the part of the shop crafts in refusing to accept the labor board's order in July, that there was no unlawful conspiracy in striking, that the court had no power to enjoin the use of lawful means to carry on the strike, that no conspiracy to do unlawful acts was properly alleged or proved and that constitutional rights were denied the union men.

It further was asserted that the strikers have settled with 124 roads and that the strike no longer exists and that the Government bill should be dismissed.

SENATOR-ELECT TRIMS TREES AND RUNS MILL
Dr. Copeland Is Not Without Honor in Rockland.

SUFFERN, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Rockland county never had one of its citizens in the United States Senate. That's the reason that this part of the country is making such a fuss over Dr. Royal S. Copeland. The Senator-elect has a farm of 130 acres two miles from this village. There are 800 fruit trees on it and he prunes and cultivates them himself.

He has a sawmill on his farm. He has lost any idea one might have concerning the unbecoming dignity of a United States Senator. In overall he operates a sawmill he has set up. He has what his system would be in Washington.

"Human welfare," he replied.

MRS. FELTON MAY BE SEATED AS SENATOR
She Will Appear in Chamber To-morrow.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18.—Unless some hardboiled Senator who is an anti-suffragist objects, Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Felton possibly may be seated Monday as Senator to succeed the late Senator Thomas E. Watson of Georgia for a day or two. Thus she hopes to blaze the trail for American women to follow into the hall of the highest lawmaking body.

With credentials from Gov. Hardwick certifying to her appointment as Senator, Mrs. Felton arrived here today. Owing to her advanced age—she is 87—she spent most of the day in her room at a hotel. She announced that she would appear at the Senate Monday and present her credentials. To clear the way for her to be seated Senators elect Walter P. George will withhold his credentials.

Vice-President Coolidge and Senator Curtis (Kan.), chairman of the Committee on Rules, had a conference on the subject today. They agreed to strain a point, if necessary, to gratify the ambition of Mrs. Felton. They say, however, that if any Senator makes an issue of the question Mrs. Felton's chances of being seated would be very slim.

BANK PATRONS BEAT BANDITS.

FARM BLOC MAKES ELEVEN DEMANDS

Capper Tells What This Congress Must Do to Appease Farmer Vote.
ONLY REPUBLICAN HOPE

Senator came out openly in opposition to the Ship Subsidy bill, saying: "I do not think we shall get anywhere in our effort to restore public confidence in government by piling up more than $50,000,000 a year on the public's back in the form of a ship subsidy in addition to its present burden."

While not predicting the fate of the subsidy bill Senator Capper said few Senators from agricultural States will support it. He is very much gratified at the announcement that the Administration is looking with favor upon the rural credit plan to aid farmers in marketing their crops.

Efforts will be made by the farm bloc, Senator Capper added, to have its legislative program carried out at the coming session of Congress, but any efforts to secure support of the subsidy bill by "log rolling" will be frowned upon by the agricultural group in Congress.

ONCE A GERMAN SPY, ABANDONS WIFE NOW
Canadian Engineer Writes That He Feared Detection.

WILSON, Ont., Nov. 18.—Echoes of the war by German spies were credited with uncanny subtlety, were awakened today with the receipt of a letter from Alexander Harvey May, who wrote from Germany to his wife, whom he abandoned here two months ago following his disappearance from his post as works engineer of the Canadian Products Company at Walkerville. The purport of the letter was that he had been a German spy, but had been obliged to flee because he feared detection.

"I have led a life of deception," he wrote to his wife, whom he married in St. Louis, Mo., nine years ago, "and you have been too good a wife for me. Knowing how you hate a deceiver and realizing that this deception would be revealed to you eventually, I decided to resort to this way of leaving."
